PORT ST. LUCIE — When people lose their jobs, many issues must be dealt with, including insurance and retirement plans. For many, the loss of a job is an opportunity to look at changing careers.

For the past several months, John Adams, owner of Adams Wealth Planning, Inc. in Port St. Lucie, found a recurring theme among many of his clients — they were unemployed and uncertain about their futures. So Adams decided to spearhead the organization of an unemployment seminar.

Open to the public, the free unemployment seminar will be 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 3, at Keiser University auditorium. Sponsors and presenters include Adams Wealth Planning, Keiser University, Fiorella Insurance/Blue Cross Blue Shield, and The Assertive Group International.

During the hour-long seminar, attendees will learn about health care options, including COBRA, and retirement planning including 401K options. Keiser University will discuss the best approach to career changes.

Sponsors and presenters will be available for one-on-one consultations.

"Through helping people in my business, I realized there was a real need for this," said Adams, "Hopefully, people will be able to get information they need."

Keiser University auditorium is located at 10330 South US 1 in Port St. Lucie. To register for the seminar or for more information, visit www.adamswealthplanning.com (click on the registration link) or call (772) 485-7933.
