Rep. Ileana Ros-Lehtinen (R-FL) News Release

Dateline: May 28, 2009 (Congressional Documents and Publications/ContentWorks via COMTEX) --

Article Text:

Miami, Florida --- Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen will be speaking before the graduating class of Keiser University tomorrow Saturday, May 16th. On Sunday, May 17th, Ileana will visit Cuba Nostalgia at the Youth Fair Expo Center to help honor South Florida radio pioneer Martha Flores.

Tomorrow, Saturday May 16th, Ileana will be speaking to about 200 graduating students from Keiser University. The graduating students will be majoring in Accounting, Business Administration, Criminal Justice, Health Services, Medical Assisting, Information technology, Paralegal, Nuclear Medicine, Nursing and others professions. The Congresswoman will be wearing her cap and gown from her Doctoral graduation from the University of Miami. The graduation will take place at 10:00 AM at the Signature Gardens, located at 12725 SW 122 Avenue, Miami

On Sunday, May 17th, Ileana will visit the Cuba Nostalgia event at the Youth Fair Expo Center where she will help Baptist Hospital honor South Florida radio pioneer Martha Flores with a booth on her life and accomplishments. Ileana and her family will be at Cuba Nostalgia on Sunday at 2:00 PM. The Youth Fair Expo Center is located at 10901 SW 24 Street, Miami.

Said Ros-Lehtinen, "I am honored to be speaking before the graduating class of Keiser University and I look forward to sharing with them the many successes that are within reach because of the good education they have worked so hard to achieve. I will also be spending time on Sunday with my dear friend and radio pioneer, Martha Flores. Her 50 plus years broadcasting to South Florida's Hispanic community have made her an institution in local Spanish radio. A great weekend awaits us!"
