BARTENDER OF THE WEEK

Chelsea Waltz Longhorn Steakhouse, Winter Haven

Jennifer Canady
LEDGER CORRESPONDENT
Published: Thursday, July 21, 2011 at 12:01 a.m.

Chelsea Waltz would describe her personality as bubbly and happy most of the time. And that description of herself is what landed Waltz the job with her boss more than three years ago at Longhorn Steakhouse in Winter Haven. She credits her longevity at Longhorn with the regular customers and the comfortable atmosphere. When not working, 22-year-old Waltz attends Keiser University. Working on her associate's degree in criminal justice, she would like to move into the field of forensics.

In Ten Years, Where Would You Like To Be Living?

I'd love to live in North Carolina somewhere. It is just so pretty up there.

Do You Have A Signature Drink?

We have drink specials all week, but my favorite is the Watermelon Margarita: Don Julio tequila, Smirnoff Watermelon vodka, grenadine, Monin Watermelon syrup, sour mix and a rim of watermelon sugar. It tastes like Pop Rocks and is great.

This story appeared in print on page 018

Copyright © 2011 TheLedger.com — All rights reserved. Restricted use only.