ACADEMIC ADJUSTMENT/ACCOMMODATION POLICIES

General Information

Equal Access to Education

The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504) and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 state that qualified students with disabilities who meet the technical and academic standards at Keiser University may be entitled to reasonable accommodations. Under these laws a disability is defined as any physical or mental impairment which substantially limits a major life activity. To this end, Keiser University is committed to providing equal access to education by removing unnecessary barriers to enhance each student’s ability to demonstrate his or her academic abilities. The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) reinforced the provisions of the Rehabilitation Act and extended coverage to the private sector with the extension of access into all aspects of campus life, including communications and other privileges and advantages by requiring that all public facilities, services and communications be accessible to persons with disabilities and that auxiliary aids and services be provided unless such provisions place an undue hardship (defined as significantly difficult or expensive) upon an institution.

Who is Considered Disabled under the Law?

According to the Americans with Disabilities Act.(ADA) of 1990, a disability is a chronic, long-term, physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities (e.g. walking, sitting, breathing, learning, working, sleeping, etc.). This law also requires an individualized assessment of each case to determine whether or not a disability exists. The University is not required to evaluate students or pay for such an evaluation. It is a student’s responsibility to provide adequate documentation and request adjustments/accommodations and services. The University has the right to establish professional criteria to be used in reviewing the documentation.

Reasonable Accommodation

"Reasonable accommodation" is the term used by the ADA and the Rehabilitation Act for modifications made to an environment which eliminate or decrease, to a reasonable degree, structural and/or learning barriers which a student might encounter due to his or her disability. The law does not require that students with a disability be given "special" advantage that places them in a better position to succeed than their classmates. Reasonable adjustments/accommodations are made to put students with a disability in the same starting position as their nondisabled classmates. Nevertheless, an academic unit is not required to fundamentally alter the nature of its academic program in order to accommodate students.

Keiser University is committed to providing access to all of its programs, activities and services and will either remove physical barriers or enhance access in other ways to enable qualified students to participate in such endeavors.
What is a Learning Disability?

The general term Learning Disability (LD) refers to a heterogeneous group of disorders manifested by significant difficulties in the acquisition and use of listening, speaking, reading, writing, reasoning or mathematical abilities. These disorders are intrinsic to an individual and may occur across the life span. Even though a learning disability may occur concomitantly with other conditions or life stressors, a learning disability is not the direct result of those conditions or influences.

Learning Disabilities often exist with other conditions (e.g., ADD/ADHD). Keiser University reviews a student’s ADA/Rehabilitation status with consideration for all presenting conditions.

University Commitment and Support

Commitment

Keiser University is committed to providing equality of opportunity to students with learning disabilities through a supportive academic and social environment. Faculty and students work together in partnership to determine students’ needs and attempt to see that those needs are met. The University, however, does not provide a comprehensive learning disabilities program.

Support

Keiser University complies with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504) requiring that no qualified handicapped person will be excluded by reason of the handicap from enrolling in a course of instruction. Students wishing to avail themselves of special adjustments/accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act must disclose special needs at time of enrollment. Accordingly, every effort is made to make reasonable adjustments/accommodations. Certain programs may require manual dexterity. Please consult campus Admissions Offices for further information.

For physically challenged students, Keiser University campuses are either located on ground level or have appropriate elevator service with ramps and designated parking to facilitate easy entry. Restrooms are equipped with wide doorways and bars to ensure wheelchair accessibility.

The following individual is Keiser University’s Section 504 Coordinator:

William Ritchie, Ph.D.
Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs
Office of the Chancellor
1900 W. Commercial Boulevard, Suite 180
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida 33309
Tel: (954) 776-4476
writchie@keiseruniversity.edu

Students with Disabilities: A student who feels they have not been treated fairly under Keiser University’s stated federal policies has the right to file a written complaint. A complaint should be submitted to the President of the campus. These procedures apply only to complaints received in writing.
• A complaint is submitted in person, by U.S. mail, or by fax. Complaints may not be submitted by email. Complaints should be dated.
• Within 15 business days after acknowledging receipt of the handicapped policy complaint, the President of the campus will inform the complainant regarding the institutional response to the written complaint.
• Students have the right to file a grievance with Keiser University in the event that students believe the University has not followed its policies. The grievance procedures are described in the Keiser University catalog.

Communication

Keiser University expects students with learning disabilities to take an active role in communicating their needs, as they can best describe their strengths and weaknesses. It is important that an applicant inform the University of his/her situation at time of enrollment or as soon as possible to allow sufficient time to make necessary arrangements. Please note that in order to be eligible for requesting adjustments/accommodations, the applicant must have successfully completed all parts of the enrollment process and paid the associated enrollment fees. However, if the applicant raises questions regarding the adjustment/accommodation paperwork/process prior to completing the enrollment process and payment of the enrollment fees, the applicant will be directed to speak with the Campus President. Reviewing documentation and arranging for appropriate adjustments/accommodations takes time, and a delay in following through can result in a delay in receipt of adjustments/accommodations.

Diagnostic Documentation

Diagnostic documentation is critical in determining suitable adjustments/accommodations. It is an individual student's responsibility to identify her- or himself as a person with a learning disability and to provide the University with diagnostic documentation of the disability from an appropriately licensed professional. The documentation should demonstrate how the learning disability limits the student's ability to participate in an academic setting and must be submitted to the Campus President for verification. This documentation is provided to the Accommodations Review Committee before an adjustment/accommodation is sought.

Accommodations Review Committee (ARC)

The ARC includes the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs, Associate Vice Chancellor of Teaching and Learning, and Associate Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs. Committee members are appointed by the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs. The ARC will have access to all of the documentation pertaining to the student's request for adjustments/accommodations.

Confidentiality and Information Release

Keiser University is committed to ensuring that all disability information regarding a student is maintained as confidential as required or permitted by law. In most instances, the University will not inform Faculty members as to the nature of a student’s disorder unless it is necessary for providing appropriate adjustments/accommodations or in order to protect the health and safety of the student and/or others. Faculty is informed of necessary or appropriate adjustments/accommodations needed to meet a student's disability-related needs. A student may give written authorization for the release of diagnostic documentation if he or she wishes to share it with others.

In addition to the usual adjustments/accommodations provided by faculty, the University reserves the right to release supplementary information should there be a need to know. Some common need-to-know scenarios include, but are not limited to:

- a request for a course substitution
- the safety of the student and/or others
- grievance cases
- special financial aid considerations

Waiver

Students who indicate they have been diagnosed with a disability but are not requesting an adjustment/accommodation should complete a Waiver of Disability Adjustments/Accommodations form. This form should be completed within the first two weeks of enrollment or within two weeks of being diagnosed with a disability, and submitted to the Campus President for retention in the student’s file.
ACADEMIC ADJUSTMENT/Accommodation Procedures

An enrolled student desiring an academic adjustment/accommodation must submit current documentation as required by the Criteria for Disability Documentation to the Campus President. The documentation should state, as determined by an appropriate licensed professional, what reasonable adjustments/accommodations are needed by the student. Academic adjustments/accommodations may be requested by following the review/verification process described below:

1. In addition to the required disability documentation, the following forms must be completed within the first two weeks of enrollment or within two weeks of being diagnosed with a disability:
   a. Disability Registration Agreement
   b. Confidentiality Statement
   c. Request for Adjustments/Accommodations

   All forms must be signed and submitted to the Campus President.

2. Once the appropriate forms and disability documentation have been received by the Campus President and procedurally verified, the student’s written request for adjustments/accommodations is forwarded to the Accommodations Review Committee (ARC) for approval. The Campus President will retain a copy of all relevant documentation in the student’s file.

3. The student will receive written notification of the decision reached by the ARC. If approved, it is required that the student meet with the Campus President to review, verify, and document ARC findings and the academic adjustments/accommodations.

   Resubmission Procedure: Students who are denied adjustments/accommodations due to a lack of sufficient documentation of their disabilities may resubmit their requests when they have additional documentation.

   Grievance Procedure: Students who have been deemed ineligible for adjustments/accommodations have the right to file a grievance with Keiser University. The grievance procedures are described in the Keiser University catalog.

4. When adjustments/accommodations have been approved by the ARC, the student, Campus President, and Dean will meet with the Instructor of record to ensure adjustments/accommodations are provided. Such adjustments/accommodations will be documented on the Approved Course Adjustments/Accommodations form. This meeting will occur prior to the beginning of each term and a new approval form will be completed with the forthcoming Instructor of record.

5. If a student encounters difficulties with an Instructor or other University personnel regarding adjustments/accommodations, the student should bring the difficulties to the attention of the Campus President. If the Campus President is unable to resolve said difficulties, the Associate Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs will be brought into the discussion to assist with a resolution.
Service Animal Policy

I. Policy Statement: Keiser University adheres with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) in allowing use of service animals for students, staffs, and visitors. It is the policy of Keiser University that service animals assisting individuals with disabilities are generally permitted in all facilities and programs on any Keiser University campus except as described below.

II. Definition: “Service animal” is defined by the ADA, as amended in 2008 and 2010, as “any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability. Other species of animals, whether wild or domestic, trained or untrained, are not service animals for the purposes of this definition. The work or tasks performed by a service animal must be directly related to the individual’s disability. Examples of such work or tasks include guiding people who are blind, alerting people who are deaf, pulling a wheelchair, alerting and protecting a person who is having a seizure, reminding a person with mental illness to take prescribed medications, calming a person with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) during an anxiety attack, or performing other duties. Service animals are working animals, not pets. The work or task a dog has been trained to provide must be directly related to the person’s disability. Dogs whose sole function is to provide comfort or emotional support do not qualify as service animals under the ADA.\(^1\)

III. Where Service Animals are Allowed: Under the ADA, State and local governments, businesses, and nonprofit organizations that serve the public generally must allow service animals to accompany people with disabilities in all areas of the facility where the public is normally allowed to go. For example, in a hospital it would be inappropriate to exclude a service animal from areas such as patient rooms, clinics, cafeterias, or examination rooms. However, it may be appropriate to exclude a service animal from operating rooms or burn units where the animal’s presence may compromise a sterile environment.

IV. When a Service Animal can be asked to Leave: A service animal may be asked to leave a Keiser University facility or program if the animal’s behavior or presence poses a direct threat to the health and safety of others. Service animals may be also excluded in areas where the presence of a service animal fundamentally alters the nature of a program or activity or is disruptive. This may include but are not limited to, research labs, areas requiring protective clothing, and food preparation areas. In addition, if a service animal is found by the University to be out of control and the animal’s handler does not take immediate and effective action to control the service animal; if the service animal is physically ill; if the service animal is unreasonably dirty; if a service animal attempts to enter a place on campus where the presence of a service animal causes danger to the safety of the handler or other students/members of campus, or where the service animal’s safety is compromised. Furthermore, animals not covered under the ADA service animal definition can be asked to leave a Keiser University facility or program. Questions related to the use of service animals on campus should be directed towards Dr. Ritchie at 954-776-4476.

V. Students: Students who require the use of a service animal on campus should first obtain the ADA material from their campus president on each campus. Please complete the ADA application. Appropriate documentation must be submitted, along with the ADA application, to verify the need for having a service animal on campus and to register the service animal. Please submit the completed application and documentation to the campus president. This will be forwarded to Keiser University’s Accommodations Review Committee (ARC). The committee will evaluate the student’s documentation of disability and will notify the student, along with the campus president, any approved accommodations appropriate to the functional limitations of the disability, including the use of a service animal.

VI. Appeals and grievances: Any student dissatisfied with a decision concerning a service animal can use the Keiser University Grievance Procedure located in the catalog.

VII. Requirements for the Service Animal: Service animals must be immunized against diseases typical to that type of animal. All vaccinations must be current. Dogs must wear a rabies vaccination tag.

a. Licensing: dogs must wear a license tag in the local town/city of the particular Keiser University campus. The handler is responsible for complying with the local dog control and licensing laws. Documentation may be required.

b. Leash: Dogs must be on a harness, leash, or tether at all times, unless impracticable or unfeasible due to the owner/keeper’s disability, or unless such a restraint would interfere with the animal’s ability to safely and effectively perform its duties.

c. Under Control: The owner/keeper of a service animal must be in full control of the animal at all times. The care and supervision of a service animal is solely the responsibility of the owner/keeper.

d. Animal Cleanup: The owner/keeper of a service animal is responsible for independently removing or arranging for the removal of the service animal’s waste.

e. Care: The handler is responsible for the costs of care necessary for a service animal’s well-being. The arrangements and responsibilities with the care of the service animal is the sole responsibility of the owner at all times, including regular bathing and grooming, as needed.¹

CRITERIA FOR DISABILITY DOCUMENTATION

The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504) and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 state that qualified students with disabilities who meet the technical and academic standards of Keiser University may be entitled to reasonable accommodations. Under these laws a disability is defined as any physical or mental impairment which substantially limits a major life activity. It is a student’s responsibility to provide appropriate documentation to this office and to request adjustments/accommodations. Appropriate documentation is defined as that which meets the following criteria:

ACCOMMODATIONS REVIEW COMMITTEE EVALUATION PROCESS

1. The Accommodations Review Committee (ARC) is comprised of the Keiser University Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs, Associate Vice Chancellor of Teaching and Learning, and Associate Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs.

2. The committee convenes as needed to consider student requests for adjustments/ accommodations arising from disabilities documented by licensed professionals pursuant to Criteria for Disability Documentation in this manual.

3. The committee reserves the right to accept documentation which varies from this criteria but is professionally sound and of high quality, or conversely, may reject documentation viewed as inadequate to support the requested adjustment/accommodation.

4. Within two weeks of receiving the Request for Adjustments/Accommodations, the ARC will convene to review the documentation, reach a decision, and notify the student in writing of their status (eligible, ineligible, deferred).

5. If a student is ineligible or deferred, the letter will explain what is missing. If a student is determined eligible, it is a student’s responsibility to make an appointment with the Campus President to discuss the approved reasonable adjustments/ accommodations. Adjustments/Accommodations will not be initiated prior to this meeting.

In order for the ARC to consider a request for adjustments/accommodations, all applicants (prospective students) must have successfully completed all parts of the enrollment process and paid the associated enrollment fees.

Students with obvious and severe physical disabilities will be served prior to receipt of proper documentation.

Resubmission Procedure: Students who are denied adjustments/accommodations due to a lack of sufficient documentation of their disabilities may resubmit their requests when they have additional documentation.

Grievance Procedure: Students who have been deemed ineligible for adjustments/accommodations have the right to file a grievance with Keiser University. The grievance procedures are described in the Keiser University catalog.

KEISER UNIVERSITY
Confidentiality Statement

The Campus President is responsible for receiving and maintaining the disability-related documentation and information for students with disabilities at Keiser University. The documentation and information may include test data; psychological, psychoeducational and/or neuropsychological evaluations; grades; transcripts; biographical history; case notes; and any other disability-related information necessary to document and provide adjustments/accommodations to students with disabilities.

Students with disabilities have a right to review their file. A student who wishes to review his or her file must schedule an appointment with the Campus President. Students may request and receive copies of case notes, Course Adjustment/Accommodation Forms, and other documentation from the Campus President. However, students will not be provided copies of disability-related documentation from their files. Disability-related documentation is defined as any documentation given to the Campus President to substantiate the student's disability status and need for adjustments/accommodations (e.g., psychological, psychoeducational, neuropsychological or medical evaluations; letters or other information from physicians; or medical records). The Campus President will retain a copy of all information within a student's file.

Disability-related documentation (as defined above) is treated confidentially and will not be released to anyone not involved in the adjustment/accommodation and service-delivery process with the following exceptions: (a) the student gives the Campus President a signed release to share disability-related information with the person(s) or office(s) named on the release; (b) the Campus President will release disability-related information as required and/or permitted by the law and/or a court order; (c) the student threatens to harm himself or herself or others, or is suspected of abuse of a child or incapacitated adult; (d) the student files a disability-related complaint, appeal, grievance or lawsuit against a University office or employee(s).

Only the Campus President’s staff has direct access to student files. When a student with a disability requests adjustments/accommodations, he or she understands that some disability-related information may be provided on a need-to-know basis to university faculty and staff to help ensure that the student receives appropriate adjustments/accommodations. The Dean of Academic Affairs' office of the University in which the student is enrolled and the Instructors of classes for which the student is requesting adjustments/accommodations will receive disability-related information necessary to provide appropriate adjustments/accommodations. If a student files a disability-related appeal or grievance, the student understands that the Campus President will release disability-related information to appropriate University offices (i.e., the General Counsel, the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs, the Student Services office, and/or appropriate University committees). Otherwise, University faculty and staff need to know only (1) that the student has been through the disability documentation review process at Keiser University; and (2) what adjustments/accommodations have been approved to meet the student's disability-related needs.

"I have read the Confidentiality Statement. I understand and agree to the confidentiality of my disability documentation and information as discussed above. I understand I can speak further with the Campus President if I have any questions."
