

Dietetics and Nutrition

Dear Prospective Student,

Thank you for your interest in Keiser University's (KU) Master of Science in Nutrition with Distance Learning Internship or Bachelor of Science in Dietetics and Nutrition and degree program. KU is required by law to disclose to you specific state licensing requirements regarding professional licensure. In particular, KU must disclose whether (1) the program meets state educational requirements for professional licensure, (2) does not meet state educational requirements for professional licensure, or (3) it cannot be confirmed if the program meets state educational requirements for professional licensure.

The attached professional licensure disclosure notification is designed to provide the aforementioned detail for all 50 states in the U.S., the District of Columbia, and U.S. protectorates.

Upon review, should you find you reside in and/or wish to obtain licensure in a state where the program does not meet state educational requirements, or it cannot be confirmed if the program does so, please click on the link for that state to determine the professional licensure requirements for that state. For Baccalaureate program-specific questions, please contact the University Department Chair of the BS Dietetics and Nutrition program, Dr. Mary Kavanagh at the Lakeland campus of Keiser University, (863) 682-6020. For Master's degree program-specific questions, please contact the Graduate Department Chair of the MS Nutrition program, Dr. Dona Greenwood, at the Graduate School of Keiser University, (954) 351- 4040.

Sincerely,

Terry Reid-Paul, MBA, HCM
Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs
Keiser University

Professional Licensure Disclosure/Notification Statement Dietetics and Nutrition

Professional Licensure Disclosure Statement: Keiser University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award certificates and degrees at the associate, baccalaureate, masters, specialist, and doctoral levels. Questions about the accreditation of Keiser University may be directed in writing to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, by calling (404) 679-4500, or by using information available on SACSCOC's website (www.sacscoc.org).

The KU Bachelor of Science in Dietetics and Nutrition (BSDN) programs in Melbourne, Lakeland, Pembroke Pines and Port St Lucie are accredited by the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND). The KU Graduate Master of Science in Nutrition with Distance Learning Internship (MS/DI) is also accredited by ACEND, 120 South Riverside Plaza, Suite 2000, Chicago, IL, 60606-6995; 1-800-877-1600, ext. 5400, <https://www.eatrightpro.org/acend>.

The KU Dietetics and Nutrition programs (baccalaureate and master of science levels) qualify graduates to sit for the National Registered Dietitian/Registered Dietitian Nutritionist examination (RD/RDN) through the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) <https://www.cdrnet.org>, and upon passing the exam, receive the designation Registered Dietician (RD) or Registered Dietician Nutritionist (RDN). Many employers required the RD/RDN to obtain licensure in the state in which practice is desired.

At this time, KU has made the following determination regarding the M.S. Nutrition with Distance Learning Internship and B.S. Dietetics and Nutrition educational degree completion requirements for licensure/certification in the following states:

STATES IN WHICH THE PROGRAM MEETS EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS	STATES IN WHICH THE PROGRAM DOES NOT MEET EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS	STATES FOR WHICH IT CANNOT BE DETERMINED IF THE PROGRAM MEETS EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS
All 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico	NA	American Samoa, Guam, Northern Marianna Islands and the US Virgin Islands

It is strongly recommended that students, applicants, and prospective students determine any additional (i.e. non-educational) requirements for licensure in the state in which they seek to be licensed. For additional information and a listing of specific licensing requirements by state, please visit <https://www.eatrightpro.org/advocacy/licensure/licensure-map>. If you need assistance or have any Baccalaureate program-specific questions, please contact Dr. Mary Kavanagh at the Lakeland campus of Keiser University, (863) 682-6020. For Master's degree program-specific questions, please contact Dr. Dona Greenwood at the Graduate School of Keiser University, (954) 351- 4040.
