Ryan Reis Appointed to the Community Redevelopment Agency's Advisory Board

Lakeland, FL – March 30, 2010 – The Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) has appointed Ryan Reis, Director of Student Services at the Lakeland campus of Keiser University, to the Mid Town Advisory Board. He will serve on the board for a term of three years.

"It will be a gratifying opportunity to serve the Lakeland community in this capacity and I look forward to this experience," stated Reis. Since joining Keiser University in 2005 Reis has also been a member of the Mid-Florida Chapter of Society for Human Resource Management and was the Chairman for the South Lakeland Relay for Life in 2007 and 2008.

The CRA has three boards in Lakeland, Dixieland, downtown and Mid Town. The Mid Town Community Redevelopment Area Advisory Board works with the community to plan, facilitate and implement redevelopment activities.

Keiser University is Florida's leading statewide provider of career-focused, post-secondary education and is regionally accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Keiser University serves approximately 18,000 students seeking associate, bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees in over 50 high demand degree programs at its 14 campuses and through its online, Graduate School and College of Golf divisions. Keiser University's educational reach extends globally through its international programs including the Latin Division and cooperative agreements in China and the Eastern European nation of Moldova.

According to a Community College Week analysis of U. S. Department of Education data released June 16, 2008, Keiser University was named the nationwide leader in production of Associate of Science graduates in Health Professions and Related Sciences for the third straight year (2006-2008).
