Nicole “Niccisaye” Redmond, 37, lives in Killeen and works in Harker Heights.

What company do you work for?

I currently work for myself, my company is called Legacy Credit Restoration. I am the owner and president of the company.

What is your current job title?

I am a financial coach.

Are you married? Kids?

I am married to my highschool sweetheart, Alphonzo. We have been married for five years and I have known him since I was 16 years old. We have one daughter named Breanna Deloris Powell; she is 14 years old now and will be 15 in two weeks.

When and where were you married?

Alphonzo and I were married on Nov. 25, 2011, at Fort Hood NCO Club ballroom.

Where are you from originally?
Brooklyn, N.Y.

What brought you to the area?
The military brought me to the area. I was in the Army and Fort Hood was my last duty station. I got out as a veteran; I served seven years and six months in the Army.

What is your favorite color?
My favorite color is gold because it is royal.

Where do you see yourself in 10 years?
In 10 years, I see myself as an author and an independent business owner.

What is your favorite restaurant in Harker Heights?
My favorite restaurant in Harker Heights is So Natural Organic Resturant and Market.

Where is your favorite place to shop at in Harker Heights?
My favorite place to shop at in Harker Heights is Barnes & Noble in Market Heights. I am a bookworm, so I really enjoy this place.

What do you like about Harker Heights?
It is definitely different than Killeen and Copperas Cove. Harker Heights has their own outside mall, place to get a way to shop and eat. It is the best thing that they could have done in this area. I wish that they would do this same thing in Copperas Cove.

What community work do you do?
I volunteer with the Copperas Cove free clinic once a month; I provide prayer and food for the volunteers there. I mentor with mature urban youth minds. I provide assistance throughout diffrent schools. I teach these diffrent schools finacial literacy and mental health information. The next class that I will offer is at Shoemaker High School on Feb. 27 from 5 to 5:30 p.m. I sponsor children doing different things and I support local businesses. I work with helping the hands that feed the homeless.

What is the last book that you read?
The last book that I read was "Jesus Land" by Julia Scheeres.

What is the last movie that you saw?
The last movie that I saw was "Mr. Church," starring Eddie Murphy.

Are you currently in college?
Yes I am. I am three classes away from finishing my initial masters in psychology from Keiser University. I plan on graduating December 2017.
I currently have a bachelor's degree in Information Technology Management from Keiser University in 2011.
Once I finish this degree, I will attend Texas A& M for practicum classes for my license in Mental Health; you must do practicum hours.

What is your book that you are writing called?
The title of my book is called "Three Pillars of Purpose."
The purpose of my book is to focus on educational, encouraging book about spiritual warfare, mental health and finacial health. The book is of how I got into those lanes of purpose and how spirtual warfare is a pivot point that affects me mentally and financially.
This book will enlighten other people to inform and enlighten people how to over come and battle spiritual warfare so that they can boldly walk in their lane of purpose.
The published book is estimated to be out by August.

What advice would you give your younger self?
Look in the mirror and love yourself first, love everything about you.
