As the Executive Director of Integrated Rehabilitation Center, I am writing this letter of support for the Keiser Occupational Therapy Master program with which we have a partnership.

The goal of this partnership is to provide Keiser students with opportunities to develop their clinical practices in both the school system and outpatient clinic setting, to provide for a systemic approach to raising the academic achievement of students of Keiser and better prepare them for the workplace. The recent history of Keiser University demonstrates the commitment to developing high quality programs based on educational research and providing the support necessary to successfully implement these programs in the community. The result has been the continuous improvement in the academic achievement of students in the district, and great service for the community. The partnership program allows the students to gain experience working with young children with a variety of diagnoses and needs in an incredibly diverse and multicultural area- south Florida.

As the Executive Director of Integrated Rehabilitation Center, I support Keiser University tremendously and believe the implementation of the Occupational Therapy Master program provides excellent therapists for our community.

Respectfully,
Ana Espinosa, OTR/L, BCBA
