

To Whom It May Concern,

As strong community partners, CareerSource Palm Beach County has trained Keiser's students in high-demand fields of study. To meet the needs of industries in Palm Beach County, CareerSource is chartered by the state of Florida to work with Palm Beach County businesses to provide job placement, recruitment assistance and funds for skills training in all industries. CareerSource Palm Beach County is part of a powerful network of 24 workforce organizations connected across the State of Florida and has served Palm Beach County for 22 years.

Without Keiser University students, CareerSource Palm Beach County's talent pool would not be as diverse as it is through its partnership with Keiser. The quality of Keiser's students is respected in the community and employers know that they will have a well-trained candidate for any open position at their organization. Their students are professional, prompt, and have exemplary critical thinking skills. It is always a pleasure to work with Keiser University and their students.