Keiser University

The Hillsborough County Board of County Commissioners is proud to recognize Keiser University on the occasion of its 40th anniversary, and celebrates its legacy as a vital institution of higher education.

Since 1977, the private university has been unwavering in its commitment to provide superior education at undergraduate and graduate levels in traditional classroom and online environments. For the past 40 years, the institution has grown to 18 campuses throughout Florida, and numerous international locations, including San Marcos, Nicaragua, and China. As Florida's third largest not-for-profit university, its scholastic programs support veterans, first-generation students, parents, caregivers, and students who work full-time or part-time jobs. In addition to generating an annual economic impact of $3 billion in Florida, Keiser University supports charitable causes in each of the 18 Florida communities that it serves, exemplifying its humanitarian vision for academic advancement.

The Board of County Commissioners of Hillsborough County, Florida does hereby commend Keiser University for its 40 years of providing education to its diverse student body, and wishes the institution, its students, and alumni many years of continued success.
