West Palm Beach, Florida – Keiser University is pleased to announce the Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for its College of Chiropractic Medicine's Spine Care Clinic was held Saturday, March 23 at the University's College of Chiropractic Medicine located at its West Palm Beach campus.

"We are very pleased and excited to provide high quality, evidenced-based care for the South Florida community, while also offering our students the opportunity to gain hands-on learning opportunities, said Dr. Arthur Keiser, Keiser University Chancellor.

Eighth-semester students at the rigorous Doctor of Chiropractic program at the West Palm Beach campus currently intern in the clinic. Patients enjoy services such as chiropractic manipulative therapy, Cox Flexion Distraction manipulation, therapeutic ultrasound, and electric stimulation physiotherapies, therapeutic and postural exercises, foot orthotics, and more.

"The opening of our clinic represents the transition from academia to clinical practice for our students. I am proud of these students who are pioneering and helping shape the clinical experience," said Ralph Kruse, the Chiropractic Physician, and Attending Clinician.

The rigorous Keiser University Doctor of Chiropractic program prepares graduates to make a difference by relieving patients' pain, improving their mobility, and guiding them to lead healthier lives. The program combines traditional lectures with small-group learning, weekly conferences and seminars, laboratory and experiential sessions, and clinical training opportunities — all with an emphasis on case-based relevancy for chiropractic practice, a profession dedicated to excellence in spine care.
