To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pleasure that I send this letter in representation of Suplidora Internacional, S.A to share our appreciation of Keiser University and their work if serving the community while developing graduates who demonstrate outstanding academic preparation for today's job market, strong work ethic, and trustworthiness.

Suplidora Internacional has been in the market for 30 years and has had the opportunity of welcoming interns from Keiser University as part of our team, where they have showcased their professionalism, organizational skills, time management and productivity. Additionally, we have had the pleasure of cooperating with Keiser University's faculty and their level of academic preparation, achievement, and professional experience is a great testimony to Keiser University's commitment to provide an outstanding education to their students. The dedication and success of Keiser University's faculty and staff is evident in the quality of their students and graduates.

Best regards,

Gloria Brenes R.

General Manager
