To Whom It May Concern,

Keiser University is important to our community because they provide the most reliable therapists; they exceed in their professional skills, and that is why we have created a very solid bond with Keiser, where we have employed several of the graduates in the pediatric therapy field, such as Physical therapy and Occupational therapy.

We believe Keiser is an exceptionally trusted company, constantly getting in touch with us to make sure everything is going well.

With that said, Keiser is always our first option to hire new therapists and it will continue to be as long as they keep being so extraordinary at what they do.
