To Whom It May Concern,

I am a member of the Keiser University Advisory Board because I believe in the following:

- Career-minded education
- Virtual learning opportunities
- Accessible and affordable secondary education
- Post-graduate employment assistance
- Unbiased secondary education opportunities for non-traditional students.

Keiser University is important to our organization and community for the above-mentioned but also because Keiser University is recruiting and training an underserved workforce and preparing tenured future employees (and employers) regardless of current socioeconomic status.

If given the opportunity, I would hire a Keiser University graduate without hesitation.

Sincerely,
